

DANCING QUEENS

THE ULTIMATE DIVA DANCE PARTY

“Don’t you wanna dance? Say you wanna dance!”

When the queens of pop take the stage, the dance floor is never far behind. Dancing Queens is a high-energy concert celebration of the legendary women whose hits have kept audiences moving for decades.

From the electrifying glamour of Cher to the fearless reinvention of Madonna, the disco fire of Donna Summer, the irresistible grooves of The Pointer Sisters, and the soaring, show-stopping power of the incomparable Whitney Houston, these iconic artists defined the sound of the dance floor and the spirit of celebration.

Three powerhouse Spot-On vocalists bring these unforgettable hits to life in a concert bursting with energy, nostalgia, and pure joy. Audiences will hear chart-topping favorites they know by heart, delivered with dazzling vocals, vibrant storytelling, and irresistible rhythms that make sitting still nearly impossible.

Along the way, entertaining behind-the-scenes stories reveal how these superstar women reshaped pop music, broke barriers, and inspired generations of performers. The result is a concert experience that blends thrilling performances with a joyful celebration of the artists who turned music into movement.

It’s more than a concert. It’s a dance party.

Invite your audience to dress up, step out, and celebrate the legendary women who brought the dance floor to life. Dancing Queens is the perfect feel-good event, and brings audiences to their feet!

Spot-On concerts are scalable, from three singers plus pianist all the way up to full symphony orchestra arrangements, making them perfect for performing arts centers, symphony pops series, Broadway subscription series, civic celebrations and summer festival programming.
